

Henry Mark Jaskot was born on April 25, 1928 in the Charley Creek area south of Brockton. He was one of six children born to John and Margaret (Kapica) Jaskot. He attended various country schools (Schmitz School, Mona School) before graduating from Fairview High School in 1946. He attended the University of Montana in Missoula, MT for 1-1/2 years before joining the Army in 1950 (before he was drafted)! He served 2 years during the Korean War. On November 15, 1952 he married the love of his life, Joan Pintler of Fairview, MT. They made their home northwest of Fairview for 3 years where he farmed before moving to Sidney, MT in 1956. He then went into construction working for various contractors on projects such as the MDU Plant, the Sidney Senior High School, the new Safeway store (now IGA) and numerous houses and buildings. Eventually Henry branched out on his own and his legacy lives on through the walls of the businesses he built such as the Sidney airport terminal, the MonDak Heritage Center and the Blue Rock Pepsi Plant. Henry said that construction was a good profession - plus you get your daily exercise! He retired in 2008.

Henry was a very active member of St. Matthew's Parish in Sidney, MT. He served as the head of lay presiders, was a former Parish Council member for 10 years, and participated in the Cum Christo movement from 1972-2017. But God called his faithful servant home on April 1, 2018 when he died at Sidney Health Center surrounded by his family following a long, courageous battle with cancer.

Henry is survived by; two daughters, Patti Tornabeni, Sidney, MT and Kathy (Bruce) Sharbono, Missoula, MT; a son, Mark (Diane) Jaskot, New Orleans, LA; one sister, Barbara Cotter, Reno, NV; one brother, Joe Jaskot, Media, PA; five grandchildren; and six great grandchildren.

Henry was preceded in death by his wife; his parents; a brother; two sisters; and one grandson.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
O yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief,
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee-
God wanted me now: He set me free...
