Daniel Allen Bundy was born December 11, 1950 in Devils Lake, ND to Burton George and Helen Simonson Bundy. He grew up in a Christian home where they loved the Lord. In his early years, Dan lived in Devils Lake and then mostly grew up in Williston. He went to Hillcrest Academy for the last two years of high school and graduated from there. That was where he met his wife Linda Emerson. Dan and Linda were married December 26, 1970 and they had three children, Julia (Shawn) Wiser, Starla (Jason) Marmon and Tony (Karen) Bundy.

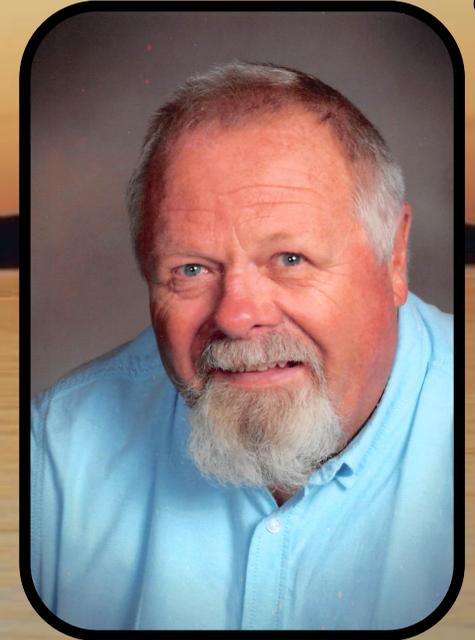

Dan loved the Lord and was active in Lutheran Bretheran Fellowship Church in Williston and Living Faith Church in Watford City. He was an Elder at both churches. Most of his working life was spent working as Production Manager for the Williston Herald. He and Linda moved to Watford City in 2007 where he worked for Red Rock/Crestwood for eight years. He also worked part-time for Automation X until full retirement.

Dan loved to have fun and play tricks on everyone. Fishing was always his favorite hobby, starting at a very early age. He was a fishing guide and made many trips out with family and friends. He also made custom fishing poles.

Dan is preceded in death by his parents George and Helen Bundy, and his brother Michael Bundy.

He is survived by his wife Linda, daughters Julia (Shawn) Wiser of Pottstown, PA, Starla (Jason) Marmon of Watford City, ND, son Anton (Karen) Bundy of Sanborn, ND, the mother who raised him Bonnie Bundy of Sun City, AZ, sisters Susan (Jim) Jenks, Jane (Joel) Backstrom, Betty (Bob) Roeder, his brother Barry (Wanda) Bundy, and his children and one great-

*You were so full of life,
Always smiling and carefree.
Life loved you being a part of it,
And we loved you for being a part of us.*

*You could make anyone laugh,
If they were having a bad day.
No matter how sad we were,
You could take the hurt away.*

*Nothing could ever stop you,
Or even make you fall.
You were ready to take on the world,
Ready to do it all.*

*But God decided he needed you,
So from this world you left.
But you took a piece of all of us,
Our hearts are what you kept.*

*Our hearts now feel empty,
And it's hard not to see your face.
But please always know this,
No One will ever take your place.*

*You left without warning,
Not even saying good-bye.
And we can't seem to stop,
Asking the question why.*

*Life will be different,
Our world just won't feel right.
But we know you're in heaven,
Watching over us day and night.*

*We didn't see this coming,
It hit us by surprise.
And when you left this world,
A small part of us died.*

*Your smile could brighten anyone's day,
No matter what they were going through.
And we know everyday of the rest of our lives,
We will be missing you.*
