

My Farm

My Farm to me is not just land
Where bare unpainted building stand--
To me, my farm is nothing less
Than all created loveliness.

My Farm is not where I must soil
My hands in endless dreary toil
But where, through seed and swelling pod
I've learned to walk, and talk with God.

My farm, to me, is not a place
Outmoded by the modern race
For here, I think, I just see less
Of evil, greed, and selfishness.

My farm is a haven--here dwells rest,
Security and happiness--
Whate'er befalls the world outside
Here faith and hope and love abide.

And so my farm is not just land
Where bare unpainted buildings stand--
To me, my farm is nothing less
Than all God's hoarded loveliness.

In Loving Memory Of

James Domaskin

"Jim"

April 19, 1951 - January 3, 2021

James "Jim" Domaskin, 69, of rural Ross, ND passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, January 3, 2021 at his residence in Ross, ND.

Jim was born in Minot, ND, on April 19, 1951, to Helen (Rolf) and Emil Domaskin. He graduated from Stanley High School in 1969. He attended the University of North Dakota before graduating with a Bachelor's Degree from Idaho State University. Jim married Mary (Heffner) Domaskin in Idaho Falls, ID, on May 6, 1972. He worked at the U.S. nuclear testing laboratory in Idaho Falls for several years. After his father died, Jim, Mary and their family moved to Stanley. They took over the family farm south of Ross and learned to farm together. Jim also laid carpet for Springan Furniture for many years. In all, Jim and Mary farmed together for 40 years and raised three daughters.

A lifelong hunter, Jim cared deeply about conserving wildlife and encouraging new generations of bow hunters. In addition to hunting on the farm, he bow hunted in Montana, Alaska, Texas, Georgia and many other states, along with Canada and a couple once-in-a-lifetime hunting trips to Namibia. He enjoyed fishing Lake Sakakawea and deep sea fishing in Cabo, Mexico with good friends. Jim leaves behind friends from across the U.S. and world who care about wildlife and hunting as much as he did.

If there was anything Jim loved more than hunting, it was a good story, especially if a prank was involved. He claimed he was a homebody, but somehow he was the last one to leave a party and could make a few errands stretch out all day with conversation and coffee. In Jim's memory, please share a story or a joke with your friends and family.

In addition to his wife, Mary; survivors include daughters, Jenny (Troy) Smith of Berthold, ND, Sara (Peter) Miller of Bozeman, MT, and Andrea (Quang Trieu) Domaskin of Minneapolis; grandchildren, Jake, Courtney, Taylor and Justin Smith and Helen and Ian Trieu; niece, Becky (Steve Wagner) Huestis and nephew, David (Christine) Huestis.

Jim was preceded in death by his parents; Emil and Helen Domaskin; his sister, Barbara (Domaskin) Huestis and brother-in-law, Kirby Huestis.

Memorials preferred to the North Dakota Bowhunters Association Foundation or the Mountrail Community Food Pantry.
