Her faith was firmly grounded in the Word, and her belief provided comfort for her transfer from earth to eternal life.

Nancy enjoyed rural life as she was born and raised on her family farm in Hazelton, ND, which she deemed "Home Home".

She deeply loved and served her family at every opportunity. As her survivors, we are grateful for her love and devotion. She was an adoptive mother, grandmother and aunt to any community member in need.

She is survived by; her five children, Luther (Linda) Beyer, Paul (Nichole) Beyer, Marlin (Tammy) Beyer, Mary Baue-Little (Steve Little), and Andrea Baue Scott; her eleven grandchildren, and nine great grandchildren; her sisters, Sharon Smelser and Beth Correll, and her brother Douglas Weiser.

14th Chapter of John

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions:

if it were not so, I would have told you.

I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you,

I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither

thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life:

no man cometh unto the Father, but

by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also:

and from henceforth ye know him,

and have seen him.
