

"A Truckers Prayer"

Oh Lord be with me today as I head out onto the open road for I know not the dangers that this day may hold with a map by my side

Oh Lord let it be you that is my daily guide and as I head out to where the yellow line never ends it sure is good to know that you will be riding with me once again and when I have taken my last load there will be one final trip that I must take one that will be on a road that is paved with gold and there I will rest for there will be no more trips to take once I have entered Heavens Gates.

Steven Lindecker

Steven George Lindecker was born on February 5, 1972, in Williston, ND to George and Hope (Danielson) Lindecker. He attended school in Williston and Alexander, ND, and well as Forsyth and Colestrip, MT. Steve attended college in Bismarck, ND where he was trained in welding. He also attended truck driving school in Billings, MT, where he became a professional truck driver.

Steve worked for area farmers, growing up, and also helped his father, George (Lindecker Feeds), and his uncle, August (Lindecker Trucking), hauling grain and agriculture products. Steve later owned and operated Daddy's Pride Trucking, where he hauled cattle and agricultural products until he was forced to retire to concentrate on his cancer treatments.

Steve enjoyed being outside, camping, fishing, hunting and fixing or building anything and everything. He was a life-long member of the NRA, and the Independent Owner/Operator Drivers association. In his free-time, Steve enjoyed singing Karaoke. He made many friends, and considered many as family. His passion for singing never stopped him from singing at home to his family members whenever he could. He enjoyed teaching his kids everything he knew, as they were eager to learn. Many people looked up to Steve for support and advice.

Steve is survived by; his wife, Renee (Christensen) Lindecker of Emerado, ND; his daughter, Mary Jayne Hogue of Williston, ND; his stepchildren, Cody Christensen, Parker Christensen, and Haylee Christensen-Morin of Emerado, ND; his father, George Lindecker of Alexander, ND and his uncle, August Lindecker of Alexander, ND; numerous aunts, uncles, extended family members, and close friends.

Steve is preceded in death by; his mother, HopeAnn Lindecker (Danielson); his grandparents, and many aunts and uncles.

Do Not Stand At My Grave

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you wake in the morning hush;
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft starlight at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there, I did not die.
