When I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, be thankful for our many beautiful years. I gave to you my love, you can only guess how much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown but now it's time I travel on alone. So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust. It is only for a time that we must part, so bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on, so if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart you'll hear all my love around you soft and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile, and say... "Welcome Home"

In Loving Memory Of Rosetta "Rusty"
Coral Lowry

July 19, 1940 - January 5, 2023

Rosetta "Rusty" Lowry was born on July 19, 1940, in Malta, MT, the daughter of Ludwig and Loretta Kuntz. She grew up and went to school in Harlem, MT. Rusty married Milton Lowry on June 7, 1958, in Chinook, MT. They lived in Sidney, MT then later moved to Belgrade, MT, where she raised her four children while selling Avon and Tupperware. They moved to Hogeland in 1986 where she worked at the Post Office and the North 40. Later when her kids were grown, Rusty lived in Havre, MT for a number of years before returning to Sidney, MT to be closer to her daughters. While in Havre, she spent most of her time volunteering at the Giveaway House; a place close to her heart.

Rusty was a strong-willed woman with her own distinct opinion on everything. That accompanied by her delightful, often warped sense of humor made her fun to be around. Rusty was a passionate reader of romance novels, loved puzzles and playing word games. She adored calligraphy, bingo, and card and board games, also. She had a special place in her heart for her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Rusty never missed sending everyone a birthday and holiday greeting card.

Rosetta "Rusty" passed away on Thursday, January 5, 2023, at the Sidney Health Center, Sidney, MT with family by her side. She will be greatly missed by many.

Surviving her are: her children, Cindy (Rocky) Cowell, Kelly (Alan) Burke, and Christopher "Chris" Lowry; her sisters, Pearlless Doney, Irene Crasco, and Cheri Brindle; her grandchildren, Michael (Sarah) Burke, Ryan Cowell, Kimberly (Tony) Thomas, Heather Burke, Gary (Kerriann) Burke, Sean (Breezy) Cowell, Melanie (Dustin) Knoll, Paul Lowry, Tristan Lowry and Madison Lowry; 19 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; son, Loren Lowry; brothers, Charles Kuntz, Allen Thingstad and Howard Thingstad.

GOD hath not promised

Skies always blue.

Flower strewn pathways

All our lives through;

God hath not promised

Sun without rain,

Joy without sorrow,

Peace without pain.

But GOD hath promised

Strength for the day,

Rest for the labor,

Light for the way.

Grace for the trials

help from above,

Unfailing sympathy.

Undying love.
