

When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.
Forget unkind words I have spoken;
Remember some good I have done,
Forget that I ever had a heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.
Forget that I have stabled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way.
Remember I have fought
Some hard battles and won,
Ere the close of the day,
Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day,
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay
And come in the evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west,
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.

Strength
Hope
Love

It is with great sadness that Dan Lacher, 68, took his last breath on Saturday, May 27, 2023 at Bethel Lutheran Nursing and Rehabilitation Home in Williston, ND. As we are heartbroken, we know this is what he wanted and was ready. It brings us peace knowing that he is no longer suffering and hope that he will be at peace and finds the happiness that he has been searching for the past years since the loss of his legs.

Dan was born in Williston, ND to Leo and Joan Lacher on July 20, 1954. He was raised in Williston and graduated from Williston High School in 1973. In his earlier years, he worked in the oilfield, but took the most pride in being a tracker for adolescents. The hobbies he enjoyed were hunting, fishing, making jerky, and visiting with friends.

Dan was united in marriage with Terri on September 21, 1985. Terri stood by his side through better or worse and always kept a positive attitude. She was his saving grace.

Dan was especially proud of his four children. Even at times a little overprotective, we knew he loved us. Dan was very social and enjoyed visiting with friends. As we all know, he loved teasing and telling his "inappropriate" jokes.

Dan is survived by his loving wife, Terri; four children, Kristin (Greg) Backhaus, Danielle (Holand) Neubauer, Danette (Jon) Ostby, Dustin (Kim) Lacher; 10 grandchildren; sister, Julie (Jim) Dunnigan; aunt, Jenny Lacher and several cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Steven Lacher.

He will be missed greatly. Always remember the good times and cherish them. Until we see you again...
