

The Lord works righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed. He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the people of Israel. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us. As a father shows compassion to his children, so the Lord shows compassion to those who fear him. For he knows our frame; he remembers that we are dust. As for man, his days are like grass; he flourishes like a flower of the field; for the wind passes over it, and it is gone, and its place knows it no more. But the steadfast love of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children, to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments. The Lord has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all. Bless the Lord, O you his angels, you mighty ones who do his word, obeying the voice of his word! Bless the Lord, all his hosts, his ministers, who do his will! Bless the Lord, all his works, in all places of his dominion. Bless the Lord, O my soul!

In Loving Memory Of
Daniel Earle
September 14, 1959
- August 12, 2024

Daniel "Dan" J Earle was born in Seattle on September 14, 1959, to Mary Beth MacCauley and Richard Earle. He spent most of his early life in Washington enjoying seafood and scuba diving. Moving to Sidney, it quickly became his home where he built meaningful relationships with his family, friends and church.

Dan Earle was a man with big dreams and the daring to follow them. He could visualize and articulate what he saw with humor and wit. He had passion for what he believed. He came into a world of pain and suffering and bravely fought his whole life to overcome the trials of the world. Dan came to know that God was the only one who could help him triumph over this world's sorrows. Through the strength of Jesus Christ, he was continually growing in the love he had for his family, friends, and those in need. In the end, his heart was devoted to serving in his ministry, and enjoying being a father and grandpa. He was deeply loved by Christ, his wife, children, family, and many friends.

Dan left this world to join his Lord and Savior on Sunday August 12, 2024.

He is survived by his wife Karen Khrystye; children Keenan Lee (Bridget), Tianna Rose (Ryan) Horner, Sean Artimus, Joshua Dean and Nate; grandchildren Raymond, Peony Octavia, Verity Brooke, Brandon and Aubrey; his mother, Mary Beth MacCauley; and two sisters Beth (Gilbert) Arias and Laurie (William) Shermer.

Dan joins in heaven his father Richard Earle, brother Rick Earle, first wife Thelma, and son Chad Daniel.
