Final Harvest

He was bound to the land from the day of his birth

His roots anchored deep in the fertile earth

Nurtured, sustained, by the soil he grew

And his life, like his furrows, ran straight and true.

In faith, each spring, he planted the seeds

In hope, to reap his family's needs

With patience, he waited, for the harvest to come

To gather the fruits of his labor home.

Ever turning the seasons, the years sped past

'Til the final harvest came at last

Then, claimed anew, by beloved sod

He was gathered home to be with God.

In Loving Memory Of
Marlo "Piker" Salsbury

May 5, 1960 - October 26, 2024

Marlo (Piker) Ray Salsbury was born May 5, 1960, in Sidney MT to Loyd & Myrl (Lyon) Salsbury. Piker grew up and lived on the family farm in the Girard Community of Fairview MT. Piker attended Fairview Schools and Wahpeton College for a couple of years.

Piker and his father owned Salsbury Well Drilling and worked together until Loyd's death. Piker continued the business for many years after. Piker farmed his whole life and loved it. He was especially excited to see this year's crop put "into the bin." If he couldn't get in the tractor, he often would cook a meal for the guys.

Piker enjoyed fishing weekends at Tobacco Gardens and entertained many friends and family there. Oh, the stories that cabin could tell! He loved kids, especially teasing them. Piker continued his mother's love for animals and almost always had a dog at his side.

Piker was a member of Zion Lutheran Church, Montana and North Dakota Water Well Drillers Associations, the Elks, and was a former member of the Moose Lodge.

Piker was a talker; he could visit with anybody. Joking and teasing were his specialties. He was kind and giving, donating to the food bank, benefits and other charities.

Piker passed away on Saturday, October 26, 2024, at St Vincent's Hospital in Billings, MT with family by his side.

Piker is survived by his sister-in-law, Pam Kilen of Fairview; brothers-in-law, Randy Davis of Sidney and Jerry Whiteman of Richey; nephews and nieces Marlon Kilen and Kenny (Connie) Kilen of Fairview, Jana (Harley) Olson of Richey, Janette (Sione) Tulimaiau of Billings, and Jamie (Leslie) Whiteman of Sidney; numerous great nieces and nephews, long-time family friend, Bill Lewis, and special friend, Rhoda Lyon.

Piker is preceded in death by his parents, grandparents, brother Marvin Kilen, sisters Janis Whiteman and Myrna Davis, and best friend Tim (Tim-Bob) Dolney.
