

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of the day
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered Joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Ah, yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life has been full, I've savored much Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me FREE!

Wade Wesasley Kiamas, 64, of Fairview, MT was born in Sidney, MT on August 19, 1961, to parents Pete and Donna (Karst) Kiamas. Growing up, he attended school in Fairview, MT. He worked for Lower Yellowstone Irrigation Project as a ditch rider until he started working for Rex Niles in the fields for several years, then farming for Terry Cayko. He continued his love of farming throughout the rest of his life.

Wade was a true outdoorsman, and he loved nothing more than exploring the outdoors while he was fishing, hunting and snowmobiling with family and friends. In fact, one of his favorite things to do was joking around and visiting his many family and friends.

Wade is survived by his father, Pete Kiamas, Fairview, MT; sister, Brenda Kiamas, Sidney, MT; niece, Tanya Campbell, Gillette, WY, great niece, Alexis Kreiger of Gillette, WY, and great nephew, Dakota Kreiger, also of Gillette, WY.

Wade is preceded in death by his mother, Donna Mae Kiamas, and niece, Casey Lynn Campbell.
